International Distribution & Platform Exclusivity

The undersigned Producer is a "Gold Member" of the Mediterrolio network. By signing this document, the Producer explicitly agrees to the terms of the Exclusive Distribution of his/her products through Charilaos Gounaras (Manager of Mediterrolio Sales Channels) and Mediterrolio (Brand Owner), specifically acknowledging the following:

- 1. Platform Exclusivity: The Producer is strictly prohibited from opening or maintaining individual accounts on B2B platforms (e.g., FAIRE, Orderchamp, Ankorstore) for the European and US markets. All sales on these platforms shall be handled exclusively through the Manager's accounts. If the producer creates his own account on a platform, he will be excluded from the Mediterrolio account of the Platform.
- 2. Customer Protection: The Producer agrees not to contact or supply the Manager's customers directly. The Manager's customer database is strictly confidential. A "Whitelist" of existing customers must be provided to the Manager by 01.01.2026 or up to date. Should the producer be contacted by a customer of a B2B Platform, he has to send the immediately to the Manager. Any contact with a customer outside this list is a breach of contract unless prior written proof of an existing relationship is provided. In such cases, the producer may choose to sell directly to the customer or through the Manager's Mediterrolio account.
- 3. Contractual Penalty: The Producer acknowledges that a breach of the exclusivity or customer protection clauses results in a penalty of €500 or three times the value of the generated turnover (whichever is higher) and immediate exclusion from the international sales channel.
- 4. Quality Liability: The Producer remains solely liable for the quality of the products and compliance with international food standards (EU/USA).
- 5. Data Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure: The Manager and Mediterrolio commit to maintaining the strict confidentiality of all sensitive information provided by the Producer, including but not limited to wholesale pricing, production volumes, and personal contact details. This data shall be used solely for the purpose of managing sales and platform listings and will not be shared, sold, or disclosed to any third parties or competing producers without the Producer's prior written consent.

* I confirm that I am the authorized representative of my olive oil brand and I accept the terms of International Distribution & Exclusivity as described above.
